

ACCOUNTING MINOR

The Accounting minor allows students who are not accounting majors to develop competency in accounting for career preparation and professional development. Students can choose from a variety of accounting courses that will allow them to develop the knowledge base to strengthen their analytical and decision-making skills. The accounting minor requires successful completion of 18 credits in accounting-related courses.

Best Fit Majors: Business Management and Sports Management

Code	Title	Credits
Required Accounting Minor Courses
AC-161	Principles of Financial Accounting	3
AC-163	Principles of Managerial Accounting	3
AC-211	Accounting Software Solutions- Small Business	3
Elective Courses
Select three of the following:		9
AC-205	Intermediate Accounting I
AC-231	Federal Income Tax Law I - Personal Tax
AC-305	Intermediate Accounting II
AC-332	Federal Income Tax Law II - Corporate Tax
AC-360	Cost/Managerial Accounting
AC-370	Financial Statement Analysis
Total Credits		18