

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY MINOR

The importance of information technology in today's markets is undeniable. This minor will give students an advantage in the ever-increasing technological demands required for a variety of professions as they gain exposure to the world of computing and information technology. Students who complete this minor will learn the fundamental aspects of practical applications of information technology. The Information Technology minor requires successful completion of 18 credits in Information Technology related courses.

Best Fit Majors: Accounting and Business Management

Code	Title	Credits
Required Information Technology Minor Courses
IT-100	Introduction to Information Technology	3
IT-130	Database	3
IT-160	Programming Logic	3
Elective Courses
Select three of the following:		9
IT-150	Web Design Technology
IT-250	Advanced Web Design
IT-260	Advanced Programming
IT-280	Object Oriented Programming
IT-295	Systems Analysis & Design
IT-330	Database Management Systems
IT-396	Management Information Systems
IT-435	Database Administration
Total Credits		18